To Our Beloved One

In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away. Our hearts were almost broken, you fought so hard to stay. God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed his weary eyes and whispered peace be thine. You left us very quietly, your many thoughts unknown. But left us many memories, we are proud to own. So treasure him Lord, in your garden of rest, for when on this earth, he was one of the best.

Such was the life of loved one, Brother Johnnie Moses Rogers, who was born in Haywood County, June 28, 1927 to Mrs. Beulah Johnson Rogers and the late Mr. Mosby Rogers. He departed this life on Wednesday morning at 12:25 a.m. October 31, 1979 at Madison County General Hospital. God Almighty commanded the spirit of our loving friend and brother to be free, and he responded to those golden bells that summoned him to everlasting joy and peace.

The preparation for this calling was made in his early life when he accepted the gift of salvation and was added to the Woodlawn Baptist Church family, where he served until he was united with the St. John Baptist Church. There he served faithfully and untiringly as deacon, church treasurer, and in many other capacities in the church.

In his early manhood he was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Bernice Bond, to this union eight daughters were born of which two preceded him in death.

He was a good neighbor and friend, a man who will be greatly missed in his home, church, community, and county. He served as a bus driver for more than twenty (20) years at the Douglass Elementary School.

He is survived by a devoted wife Mrs. Bernice Rogers, a mother, Mrs. Beulah Rogers, six loving daughters: Johnnie Mae Vappi, Hilda Mabon, and Carol Rogers of Chicago, Illinois; Bonita Barksdale, Elaine and Debra Rogers of Nashville, Tennessee; one sister: Mrs. Linnie Taylor of Memphis, Tennessee; four brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, one uncle, two great aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends to cherish his memories.
