Obituary

Mrs. Remel Peeples Bryant was born in Fayette County, Somerville, Tennessee on October 27th, 1913, the eldest of four children born to the union of Mr. Jim Peeples and Mrs. Mary Futrell Peeples.

At 12:30 p.m. on Monday, January 5, 1987, Jesus seeing the state of this tired, meek and lowly servant, dispatched a death angel to Haywood Park Hospital to bring her soul home!

She confessed faith in Jesus Christ as her Lord & Savior and united with the Alexander Baptist Church. Upon moving to Haywood County, in keeping with the Baptist covenant she united with the St. John Baptist Church, where she was a dutiful member until her health failed.

She entered holy matrimony with the late Mr. William H. (Bill) Bryant. To this union two daughters and 1 son was born.

She leaves to cherish her memory: 3 daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Barnes, Mrs. Annie Springfield and Ms. Gloria J. Sweet of Brownsville, Tennessee; 2 step-daughters Mrs. Mae Ella Jones of Markham, Ill. and Mrs. Willie Mae McLilly of Chicago, Ill.; 1 son Sgt. 1st Class John H. Bryant U.S. Armed Forces, Fort Gordon, GA., 1 sister Mrs. Erma Lee Seaberry of Cleveland, Ohio; 2 brothers Messrs Tommie and Robert Peeples of Detroit, Michigan; 16 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; one son-in-law Mr. Wm. Springfield of Brownsville, Tennessee and one daughter-in-law Mrs. Mae Francis Bryant of Augusta, GA.; 2 sisters-in-law Mrs. Earline Peeples of Detroit, Michigan and Mrs. Mattie Lou Bryant of Somerville, Tennessee; one brother-in-law Mr. George Thomas Bryant of Somerville, Tennessee and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and other relatives and friends.

"A commonplace life," we say, and we sigh;
But why should we sigh as we say?

The common place sun in the commonplace sky
Makes up the commonplace day.

The moon and the stars are commonplace things,
And the flower that blooms and the bird that sings,

But dark were the world and sad our lot
If the flowers failed and the sun shone not;

And God, who studies each separate soul
Out of commonplace lives makes his beautiful whole.
