

Acknowledgment

*You were so very thoughtful
That no words can quite express
The special concern that you showed us
That brought us comfort and rest.
And though we just say "Thank You"
That's the very smallest part.
Of the grateful thoughts we have you you
From the bottom of our hearts
"May God Bless Each of you"*

*Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life:
he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:*

John 11 : 25

Mrs. Maggie Lee Jones was born on December 4, 1920 in Fayette County, Tennessee to the late Mr. John (Jack) Allen and Dicey Murphy. She departed this life on Saturday, August 26, 2000.

She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and a loving neighbor. She loved life and lived everyday to it's fullest. Mrs. Jones met no strangers and was known to some as "Ma-Ma" and to others as "Aunt Mag."

Mrs. Jones professed her faith in Christ at an early age. She moved to Jackson, Tennessee and became a member of Salem Missionary Baptist Church.

She was united in Holy matrimony to the late Thomas G. Jones. To this unbroken union, four children were born. Besides her husband and parents, four brothers and four sisters preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: Two sons, J.W. (Gloria) Jones of Memphis, Tennessee and J.H. (Patsy) Jones of Jackson, Tennessee; two daughters, Lovette (Arthur) Price and Elizabeth Ann Jones, both of Jackson, Tennessee; one brother, Charlie (Mary) Murphy of Stanton, Tennessee and one sister, Dicey Dotson of Brownsville, Tennessee. She also leaves ten grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and a host of nephews, nieces, sister-in-laws and other relatives and friends to celebrate her home-going.

- Cry Not For Me -
When you mourn the loss of a loved one,
Many think this is the end.
But what they do not realize is,
She's resting with her friend.
Sleeping ever peacefully,
Nestled in His arms;
Knowing as she sleep,
Our Savior keeps her free from harm.
She's finally crossed the threshold,
She has made it through the door;
For this is just the beginning,
He'll oversee her for evermore.
