Obituary

*Another soldier gone
to get a great reward
He fought the fight, He kept the faith
And now he has gone home to God.*

*His soul has gone to God
The earth will claim his own
But he is shouting around the throne
While we are left to mourn.*

*But some day we will meet again
All our loved ones who have gone before;
Some day we will reach the happy land
Where parting will be no more.*

97 years of a useful life ended Friday, October 14, 1988 when Robert Ballard was called from this earthly scene. It is God's will that the laborer shall sleep, and the mourners be comforted. Because love ones who served the saviour is just sleeping and shall awake to newness of life.

Robert Ballard was born October 21, 1891 to the late Ed and Era Ballard. He accepted Christ at an early age and united with Adams Chapel C.M.E. Church. He later united with Dancyville C.M.E. Church and served faithful until his health prevented him. He was a member of the steward and Trustee Board, where he served as Chairman for many years.

He leaves to mourn his passing a loving wife, Jessie Ballard, a faithful niece and nephew Patsie Richmond and Jerry Hunter; three sisters-in-law and a host of nieces and nephews.
